DRIVER OF POVERTY

Lack of educational attainment

Mural Theme: "Education for All"

Join The Walls Project in igniting change by supporting our upcoming mural on "Education for All", which addresses this Driver of Poverty.

Poor education can prohibit younger generations from being exposed to useful workforce and life skills. Low achievement in education leads to lowered economic prospects later on in a child's life. This results in a lack of social upward mobility throughout generations. Typically, children who start behind, stay behind.

Through public art, The Walls Project hopes to affect the dialouge around education and its attainment for everyone. Education is a civil right, and without it, poverty is inescapable.
